

DOT HAPPY

ISSUE #22

06 DEC 82

Dot Happy is a Diplomacy gamezine published monthly by AllenWells (phone: (603) 888-5063) for the subscription rate of $.25 per issue. Subscriptions are regarded as a lump sum out of which issue cost is taken, so if rates do change present subscriptions will be affected.

NOTE:

All deadlines are being extended this season to give more time through the Christmas (slow mail) season. The normal 4-week scedule will resume in the next issue.

HOUSE RULE ADDITION:

27. In the case of a discrepancy between the game map and the written adjudication, the game map is to be considered correct unless the players are notified otherwise by the GM. The GM may, at his discretion, inform players of errors in the written adjudications which are not reflected in the game map, but this will not be done if it will delay the game.

Note: The last adjudication placed the Russian army in Cly while the map had it in Edi. The adjudication was correct, but I decided not to postpone the season since Russia could have made the identical move from Edi and the presence of the Russian piece in Cly did not give the French any additional possible move..

Paris-Turkey: Since Russia doesn't want my help, I can only give the game to Turkey. I invite Turkey to take out France. I will hold Russia back until this is done.

RESUMED

By now, you should all have heard from the ombudsman, Randolph Smythe. If not, tell me and I will give you a copy of his letter. To summarize, the position in DH #19 stands. My sincerest thanks to Randolph for his services.

To summarize the position:

 Sev. I have corrected this here.

Note: A player asked me if I would make his vote on the proposal public. Sorry, my policy is to not do that.

Germany-World: Germany would like to thank all its allies for the help it received throughout the game.

A Funeral Oration: Dearly Beloved (sic), we are gathered here to pay our last respects to our recently departed Italian comrade. What can be said of him?
 ...not much, for he never wrote and thus, no one knew him well. That he managed to stay alive for so long playing Gunboat in a RegDip game is remarkable.

We should now scatter his ashes onto the sea, but this cannot be done in PBM, except in a metaphorical sense.
 Has anyone a letter from the deceased that we may burn to ashes? No? I thought not. In that case, may I suggest we all scatter his address labels, as provided by the GM, upon the waters of the nearest toilet and flush them in remembrance of the deceased.

First Mourner: Alas, poor Goodyear! I knew him well.

Second Mourner: No, no, no. Goodyear is the one with the blimp. The deceased is Mr. Goodbar.

Third Mourner: No, no, no. Goodbar is the one in the movies. It's Mr. Goodwrench.

Fourth Mourner: No, no, no. Goodwrench is the car mechanic on TV. It's...it's...it's...

All: It doesn't matter! Let's get on with the party.

Playboy: GU ranked #6 in basketball.

GU ranked #7 in football.

AP+UPI: Hell if I know! I only read the good magazines.

The Paris-Rome-London-Berlin-St. Petersburg Axis:

Five down, two to go!

France-World: The French Fleets and Armies are celebrating Christmas in Italy -- 30 days leave for everyone!

France-England: A Christmas toast to the greatest play-maker of all time -- Mr. Uli Baumeister (hic-cup?)

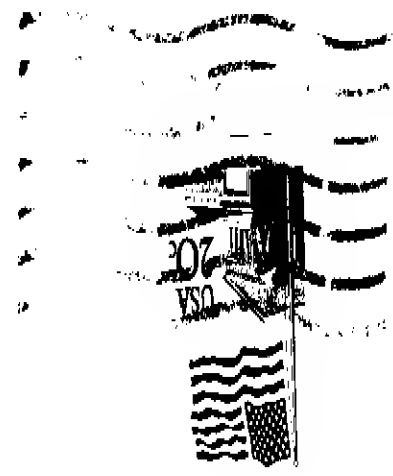

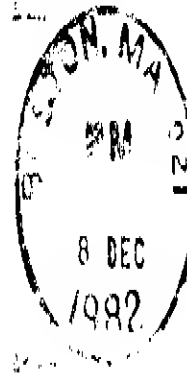

France-Austria: I'm not going after any of your centers, dude -- yet!

Superman Press: Turk----keee!

Peeri-Hugh: Be a long time before I trust you again.

Peeri-Austria&Russia: FIGHT ON, FIGHT ON!! I admire you both.
